WHAT'S NEW | CLE

Excelling at Articles - Toronto (YLD)

(9/18/2008)

M $20 NM $40

These essential materials will provide practical tips and advice to help you make the most of your articling experience. The materials focus on private practice in a non-criminal law setting although it will apply (to varying degrees) to public practice, in-house practice and criminal practice. Judges and/or masters, seasoned lawyers and those fresh from the trenches will discuss topics such as the articling student "attitudes and characteristics to display", practice management, research and writing, networking, court and life after articling. If you want practical tips from those with experience, this is the program to attend.

Trusts, Trustees, Trusteeships III

(9/23/2008)

M $90 NM $135

The use of trusts, and trust drafting will be the primary focus addressing the more complex drafting issues facing practitioners. Up-to-the-minute case law, legislation, tax considerations, bankruptcy and insolvency issues that drafting practitioners, and trustees alike, must be aware of will be analyzed. This publication is an essential tool for all practitioners, whether your practice is litigation, or solicitors' planning work.

Criminal Law Issues Affecting Civil Litigators

(9/24/2008)

M $75 NM $120

While you may not practise Criminal law, Criminal law issues can and will arise in your practice. Where do areas of Civil and Criminal law intersect, and what issues arise? This publication addresses this question with presentations and papers designed to guide the Civil litigator through Criminal and quasi-Criminal law territory. Our ten outstanding speakers are experienced members of the Civil and Criminal bars who will share their insights and strategies. Your investment in this publication will arm you with the knowledge to make you a better Civil litigator - don't miss out!

WHAT'S NEW | CLE

7th Annual Charter Conference

(9/26/2008)

  M $90 NM $135

Outstanding speakers from private and public practice, academia and the Bench will cover up-to-date significant developments in substantive and practice issues under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. The publication offers an overview of recent decisions, and important upcoming cases and trends in Charter law. Participants will have a selection of seminars to choose from, on subjects ranging from remedial and practice issues in Constitutional litigation, to substantive legal developments in areas including national security and equality rights. Don't miss this "must-have" publication for everyone who does any work on Charter issues.

18th Annual Operation Update

(10/3/2008)

  M $90 NM $90

This year will mark Operation Update's eighteenth fantastic year of providing fast-paced, focused reviews of significant changes in legislation, case law, policy and administration in a wide variety of fields. Simultaneous lectures allow you to choose from those areas that are of particular interest, while providing you with written materials on all 20 topics. Whether you are a generalist, in-house counsel or a specialist interested in key developments in other areas, Operation Update 2008 is a must for you. This program is offered jointly by the Ontario Bar Association and the Law Society of Upper Canada.

The Art of Title Searching

(10/17/2008)

  M $75 NM $120   M $145 NM $185

The introduction of Teraview® software has changed the means by which title to real property is searched in Ontario. Become familiar with the various Registry Act and Land Titles Act searches. In addition, learn when abutting land searches must be conducted and the due diligence search requirements of Title Insurers. This publication will appeal to both newly called and experienced practitioners who are not familiar with recent title search changes. Also become familiar with Electronic Title Searching and will examine samples of several automated search variations in both the Registry and Land Titles systems.

Privilege, Confidentiality and Conflicts of Interest:

Traversing Tricky Terrain

(10/23/2008)

  M $90 NM $135   M $195 NM $250

Maintaining privilege and confidentiality or avoiding conflicts of interest have always been central to the protection of clients' interests. Yet they often give rise to complex issues that leave practitioners walking through a virtual malpractice minefield. Recent legal and technological developments require lawyers to tread more carefully than ever. This publication will address topics such as proactive strategies to avoid waiver, and create and maintain privilege; the shifting sands of surveillance privilege; what should or should not be disclosed with respect to expert reports; the conflicts and privilege ramifications for lawyers on boards; and conflicts that arise in class proceedings.

Taxation Issues in Family Cases

(10/27/2008)

  M $90 NM $135   M $195 NM $250

A comprehensive program for family law practitioners at all levels of experience, which examines the intersection of income tax and family law concerns.

Insurance Law:

What You Need to Know (YLD)

(10/28/2008)

  M $90 NM $135   M $195 NM $250

All lawyers, no matter what their specific area of practice is, will encounter insurance issues. Are you prepared? Learn how to spot, analyze, and apply the law to insurance issues, with special reference to property and casualty insurance (home, auto, commercial, and liability). This publication educates you on critical aspects of insurance law. Gain insight into insurance policies as you demystify insurance terminology and insurance concepts. Learn how to recognize and comprehend different types of insurance policies and coverages. A panel of insurance lawyers and insurance industry professionals assist you in achieving a comprehensive understanding for ultimate results. This publication is an indispensable educational tool for lawyers who want to understand the important role that insurance can play in any legal matter.

Clients, Clients Everywhere:

Essential Tips for Aspiring Rainmakers (YLD)

(11/5/2008)

  M $75 NM $120

Back by popular demand! Do you want to bring in clients, but don't know how? This publication can help. Get practical tips and advice on how to network, market your practice, build your professional reputation, bring in new clients, and get more work from existing clients. Not sure how to go about inviting a business contact to lunch, much less which fork to use? Didn't know there are different business development styles, and you could be using the wrong one for your personality? Not sure how to keep your clients happy and referring work to you? Get help from experts on these and other topics, and never be mystified by marketing again!

Navigating Difficult Family

Property Issues for Employee Parties

(11/13/2008)

  M $75 NM $120   M $145 NM $185

In today's world of ever changing employment arrangements and compensation schemes, the family lawyer has to ensure that all property is accounted for in the overall settlement. This publication will explore the employment relationship, including the issue of self employment, and examine what parts of the employment contract are potentially "property" under The Family Law Act and ought to find its way in the net family property calculation. This publication will act as somewhat of a refresher on employment pensions as well. It will also examine the latest trends in the field and highlight the issues surrounding settlement of the equalization payment when the only asset left is the pension.

Hot Topics in Construction Law for the Commercial Solicitor

(11/14/2008)

  M $75 NM $120

This publication is specifically tailored for lawyers who advise construction industry clients on the front-end of a project before the work starts. Five leading practitioners will guide you through the hot topics that you must be conversant with in order to help your clients mitigate and manage the significant risks encountered in large construction projects.

Your First Collection II Deadbeat Dilemmas:

How to Get Paid (YLD)

(11/19/2008)

  M $75 NM $120   M $145 NM $185

Collections are bread and butter work for many law firms. Many lawyers still do not know the basics about how to obtain or enforce judgment against a debtor. Some are in such a hurry to get a judgment for their client that they neglect to do the proper investigations to be able to enforce the judgment once they get it. Don't let this happen to you! This publication is designed for lawyers new to the area of civil litigation. It will provide you with the questions to ask and knowledge of the searches to do before going to court to save you the embarrassment of facing your client with an expensive and useless judgment. It will also provide you with tips and tactics from leading practitioners on how to collect debts before and after judgment, as well as collecting from difficult debtors and dealing with hidden assets.

The Business of Farming (Ever Green)

(11/24/2008)

  M $90 NM $135   M $195 NM $250

Agriculture continues as a large economic driver in Ontario, and the business of agriculture is a complicated mixture of legal issues and traps for the unwary. It is an area rife with regulatory compliance requirements, family business dynamics, generational succession planning, taxation, large dollar investment and specialized financing, real estate and environmental issues. This publication will focus on a family dairy business in crisis and the issues this raises for lawyers trying to provide advice for these problems, with insight from speakers with expertise in the field.

8th Annual Franchise Law Conference:

Putting Principles into Practice

(11/25/2008)

  M $90 NM $135

The 8th Annual Franchise Law publication will be of interest to both business and litigation lawyers. Given its emphasis on the practical application of legal principles, the publication will be informative for business and litigation lawyers involved in franchise, distribution and licensing law, whether in private practice or in-house. The publication will focus on the role of counsel and best practices to limit professional liability exposure, including avoiding franchise disputes through improved drafting and prudent conduct.
